Foodstore & Emporium

Diary Dates

March 2010

Saturday March 6 – Koonwarra Farmers Market

The iconic Koonwarra Farmers Market will be offering all its delectable goodies for the Autumn season. Starting from 8.00am with the market day atmosphere continuing all day throughout the village.

Sunday March 7 – Venus Bay Farmers Markets

A recent addition to our famous regional farmers markets. The trendy Venus bay market is being staged once again for the labour day long weekend. The Koonwarra Store will be there offering all our exquisite produce. 8.00am - 1.00pm

Monday March 8 – Labour Day Public Holiday

So it's a public holiday and a perfect excuse to lounge in the gardens or café of the Koonwarra store, eating and drinking to your hearts content and wander up to the emporium to buy that special item to make you smile.

Saturday March 13 – Inverloch Food & Wine Festival

This festival has become a must do event for those keen to experience the best of local food and wine and visit our special region. The Festival is located in the Glades at Inverloch and begins at 8.00am continuing throughout the day

Saturday March 20 – Convivial Dinner

Our first Autumn Convivial dinner is, as always, not to be missed. These dinners are considered the pre eminent social event for any month and the best opportunity to experience first hand the best of local produce introduced by the producer themselves. Beginning at 7.00pm.

Sunday March 21 – Inverloch Farmers Market

One of the biggest in the region. A lovely seaside market with all the usual suspects and more on show. 8.00am - 1.00pm

Saturday March 27 – Churchill Farmers Market

A favourite and rightly so. Great location, great views, great producers and great produce. What more could you ask for at a farmers market. Get in early and take advantage of all the greats. 8.00am - 1.00pm
